KCMO Will Feature College Choir in 'Mid-America Sings' Program

Famous La Meri Comes to Campus

After Years' Study, Hard Working Artist Makes Brilliant Career.

Program Is Rare Feature

Dance Enchantress Is Author; Travels Throughout World; Heads Own School.

La Meri, the dance enchantress of a thousand and one nights, will appear with her Exotic Ensemble at the College auditorium Monday, February 7, 8:15 p. m. Her program is the major entertainment of the winter quarter.

After years of study, La Meri has richly earned the brilliant career she has made. When small she was told she could never dance, but little Meri locked herself in her room and practiced dance steps. Later she was told she could never become famous, but via the chorus and night clubs, she climbed upward to the position of "feature."

"You can't be a concert dancer or travel without lots of money," she was told. But she has traveled three times around the world and is more widely known personally than any other concert dancer to date.

Excels Native Dancers
Again she was told, "You can't do native dances unless you are a native," but the press of India declared her superior to their own dancers and the Spanish critics declared her the equal of the greatest in Spain.

Although told it was impossible to do more than one dance technique at a time, La Meri mastered ballet, and modern and the dances of fifteen alien peoples. To her "You can't" meant "I will."

Has Written Four Books
Already the author of four books, La Meri will gather material to institutionalize the ethnologic dance. She plans to open a field for serious young artists of exotic dance-arts through the launching of the Exotic Ballet Company.

La Meri says she is well because she has no time to get sick, no time to get tired. She hasn't even time for a hobby although she speaks nostalgically of dogs and horses and country life and remembers that she once wanted to be a cowboy.

Advises Young Dancers
"When young dancers come to study with me," she says, "I tell them if you really love dancing, be a dancer. For it is doubtful if a dancer's career will bring you success, money, fame, or happiness. But I guarantee it will always bring you plenty of dancing."

Slim and dark-haired with merry blue eyes and a provocative dimple, La Meri is a little lady who is admired by men, women, and children. Discussing the entertainment of La Meri and her Exotic Ensemble, Walter Terry, of the New York Herald Tribune said, "The dances for the entire program were distinguished by breath-taking costumes and by the breath-taking dancing of La Meri herself."

Commission Plans Major Recreation Activities

With the five men on the Intramural Commission and the appointment of five women there is now a Co-Recreation Commission. The purpose of this Commission is to coordinate activities between men and women on the campus. The main objective is to stress co-recreation among students of the College and to keep them informed as to what events are coming up in the recreation field. This Commission is composed of nine persons appointed by Coach Peterson and approved by the student senate. The Commission members are as follows: Larry Zierbel, chairman, Louise Chaney, Anna Mae Ulmer, Vee Oyerly, Margaret Berry, Wilbur Pollard, Don Hoffman, Loren Aldrich and Elvi Teachout.

Major recreation activities approaching are badminton, ping-pong and volleyball. The Commission requests early organization for these activities. For information or entry blanks concerning recreation, see a member of the Commission. Entry blanks must be in Coach Peterson's office by February 4.

Student Senators Purchase Records

Barkatz Will Choose Pep King and Queen During After-Game Dance.

New records will be purchased for the Bearcat Den, as a result of action taken by the Student Senate at a meeting, Thursday, January 13. A committee with Glen Meredith as chairman has been chosen to purchase twenty dollars worth of records. Alice Ruth Wharton and Bob Guthland will assist Glen in choosing the records.

Herman Hausheer called the meeting to order in the absence of Homer Long, president. Bob Guthland, new freshman senator, was sworn in.

Permission was granted to the Barkatz to have a dance after the basketball game, February 11. At this time a Pep King and Queen will be crowned.

Concerning the lights in the library, a committee was appointed to consult the administrators. The committee is composed of Jean Bush, Fred Davis, and Mack Miller. Permission was granted to the Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority to sponsor the polo drive on the campus; to Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity to use the Den for a special meeting, January 14; and to the Tower Staff, for use of the student ballot box during the Tower Dance held January 15.

Discussion was held concerning uniforms for the College band and the ping-pong tables which will not be moved back into the northeast room of the Den.

Committee Submits Plan on Objectives

Other Faculty Groups Are Considering Education, Personnel Problems.

Chairman of the sub-committee on objectives of the North Central Cooperative Study of Teacher Education, Dr. Clifford L. Bishop, has announced that the work of the committee has been submitted to the faculty for evaluation and suggestions.

Objectives of this College, formulated by the subcommittee, covers four fields; they include the overall objectives of the institution, general objectives, professional objectives and those for pre-professional work. Members of the objectives committee, other than Dr. Bishop, are Mr. Howard Ringgold, vice-chairman; Miss Helen Johnson, secretary; Dr. Harry G. Dilline; Dr. June Cozine; Mr. F. James Rybak; and Mr. Robert F. Gee.

Four other sub-committees are working on studies for the North Central Cooperative Study of Teacher Education. These committees are: Student Personnel with Miss Winole Ann Carruth as chairman; Professional Education with Miss Mabel Cook as chairman; and General Education with Dr. John L. Harr as chairman. The chairmen of the various sub-committees make up the North Central Committee with Dr. Bishop as chairman of the combined group. Dean M. C. Cunningham is the coordinator of the project on this campus.

The Objectives sub-committee expects to receive the evaluations from the faculty this week, to study suggested changes and make any alterations necessary before submitting the proposed objectives to the faculty council for approval. If approved by this group, the objectives will later be sent to the Administration and the Board of Regents for possible adoption.

Lead Us Not!

"Live your part" is in one respect what the male cast is doing in Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew," since from January 1 until the last of March the men will not see a barber. They are letting their hair grow so that they may more accurately portray Shakespearean characters.

A fine has been established to rid them of all haircut temptations. The thought of having no barber bills for the next two months has been the only favorable comment on the plan.

Mr. R. Gee Stages Shakespearean Play

Forthcoming Presentation Will Be in Elizabethan Theater Manner.

Mr. Robert F. Gee, dramatics instructor, has announced the cast for the department's forthcoming presentation of "The Taming of the Shrew," by William Shakespeare. Mr. Gee intends to stage the play in the manner of the Elizabethan theater and his play production class is designing the scenes.

The part of Petruchio, who tames the shrew, will be played by Charles Newton. Carolyn Pritchard will play the shrew.

Others included in the cast are Bianca, Betty Hudson; Lucentio, Monty Pitner; Baptista, Jim Pool; Tranio, Verlin Tompkins; Hortensio, Bob Lister; Gremio, Bill Elam; Grumio, Herbert Awe; Biondello and first servant, Bruce Walkup; Vincentio, Wayne Richards; Sly and Peter, Jack Delay; Page, Shirley Burton; Lord and taylor, Richard Miller; Hostess, Lou Hazelton; Curtis and third servant, Jesse Masters.

John Bush will be assistant director. Dorothy Adams is chairman of the costume committee and George Silver is chairman of the publicity committee. The play will be presented in the latter part of March.

Bob Tebow, Collegians Play for School Dances

"Bob Tebow and the Collegians" is the heading under which a group of college cats are providing sweet and swingy music for the College's organizational activities and all school dances.

Tebow and his musicians have played at several dances and are booked for many future dates, including the Alpha Sigma Alpha Sweetheart Dance, February 12. Bob doubles as front for the band and as string bass man. John Dillinger, who has played with name bands, is lead trumpet man. Jack Moore, from Maryville high, and Dean Steeby also play trumpets. Dean is the featured vocalist. Don Snyder on the trombone completes the brass section.

Roy Lilley, Johnnie Wallace, Robin Snyder and Marion Shearer make up the saxophone section. Jack Slack on drums and Harold Tarpley, who plays a mean piano, complete the group.

Dr. Bishop Represents College at PTA Meeting

Dr. Clifford L. Bishop represented the College at a Parent Teacher Association meeting dealing with the question of school reorganization in northwest Missouri, in Westboro, on January 17. "School House in the Red," a film depicting conditions in rural schools, was shown.

Freda Utley Will Speak February 16 in Assembly

Freda Utley, who lives and works in the U. S. S. R. for six years as a communist, will be the assembly speaker, on Wednesday morning, February 16, at 10 o'clock, according to an announcement made by the College assembly committee. The news release from the Columbia Artists Management, Inc., states that she left the country only after her husband, whom she now supposes to be dead, was spirited away without warning and without trial to a Russian concentration camp.

The British-born speaker came to the United States first in 1938 for a speaking tour under the auspices of the American Committee for Non-Participation in Japanese Aggression. She was trying to stop American and British shipment of arms and other war material to Japan.

This time, according to her managers, she believes the aggressor will not be the Emperor of the Rising Sun but Marshall Josef Stalin. Above all, she fears the communist Chinese agents who are fighting to bring China into the Soviet orbit and convert her into an enemy of America. If we do not help the Chinese government to suppress the armed rebellion of Moscow's fifth column, the Chinese communists, Stalin will be in a better position to attack us successfully than was Japan in 1941. She maintains that if Asia goes communist, the fate of western Europe will be only a matter of time for Stalin.

Mr. John S. Taylor, instructor in the social science department, will present the first lecture this year on February 6. Entitled "Why Don't We Really Help Youth?" the lecture is an analysis of the problems confronting youth today.

In his address, Mr. Taylor will emphasize the fact that people are not really helping youth today and that "youth organizations" do not really serve youth. He believes that elders are placing barriers in front of young people which prevent them from shouldering adult responsibilities and thus prevent them from becoming adults as quickly as they should.

Mr. Taylor was born in Lucknow, India, and spent the first years of his life there; in recent years he has traveled throughout the states. During his three years in the navy, Mr. Taylor served in Hawaii, the Philippines, and other Pacific areas.

He received his A. B. degree from Illinois Wesleyan University, Bloomington, Illinois, and his A. M. degree from the University of Illinois, Urbana, Illinois. He taught in the city schools at Piper City, Illinois, and Jacksonville, Illinois, before coming to the College in 1946.

Mrs. Ramona Canton, chairman of the speech department, will speak February 13. Her lecture "Trippingly on the Tongue" concerns story tellers and story telling. The lecture will support a revival of the art of story telling.

Mrs. Canton has attended many colleges and universities. Among them are MacMurray College for Women, Jacksonville, Illinois; University of Iowa, Iowa City; University of Wisconsin, Madison; University of Southern California, Los Angeles; University of Washington, Seattle; and State University of Louisiana, Baton Rouge.

Before coming to Maryville, Mrs. Canton taught at Western Illinois State Teachers College, Macomb, Illinois.

Dr. Edwin H. Colbert, the visiting February lecturer, will speak on "The Long Reign of the Dinosaurs," February 20. Dr. Colbert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Colbert of Maryville. Mr. George Colbert was head of the mathematics department at the College for many years.

Curator of fossil reptiles at the American Museum of Natural History, Dr. Colbert is well informed on the subject of the early dinosaurs. In the summer of 1947 he and his assistants discovered the fossil skeleton of a primitive dinosaur at Ghost Ranch, New Mexico.

This past summer and fall Dr. Colbert represented the museum at the International Zoological Congress at Paris and the International (Continued on Page Two)

Educators Favor School Election February 16

The Nodaway County Administrators decided last Monday night to set Wednesday, February 16 for a special election for Nodaway county to vote on liquidation of the Nodaway county school fund. This fund amounts to about $122,000 and would be distributed to the district under a two-thirds vote.

The educators went on record at a meeting held last night at Residence Hall at which time the Nodaway County Redistricting Board and a school board director from each high school district were present.

Charles Myers of Ravenwood, presided at the meeting at which time redistricting was discussed in an open forum.

College Students Sponsor Fund Drive

Projects Include Chinese Dinner, Novel Type County Fair.

During the remainder of the week, student organizations on the campus are sponsoring the World Student Service Fund.

Many projects have been planned, but no direct soliciting of funds will be done. Sunday, February 6, a Chinese dinner will be served between the hours of six and seven in the evening. This dinner will be served at the Quads, and the Green and White Peppers will be the waitresses. Tickets are on sale by one member of each College organization.

On a date to be announced later, a novel type of "Country Fair" will be held in the Administration building. All organizations are contributing talent, time, and money to its success.

There will be an auction to be conducted by the combined team of Phi Sigma Epsilon and Sigma Tau Gamma fraternities. A dance will be held in Room 114 and will be planned and promoted by the three sororities. The Home Economics Club and Kappa Omicron Phi will provide money making entertainment by holding a cake walk in Room 113.

Some sort of movie short, probably one with a comic theme, will be presented in Room 101 and sponsored by the Newman Club and S. C. A. The Foreign Students Club will sponsor a palm reader and a portrait sketcher. Telegrams will be sent out by the A. C. E. and the W. A. A. will hold a square dance in the Den.

Wrestling will take precedence in the latter part of the evening, when the M Club will sponsor a match in Room 113. The Independent students will sell food from the bookstore during the evening.

Student Seminar Will Feature Debating Class

Thursday, February 3, debaters of Mrs. Ramona Canton's discussion and debate class will have an undjudged debate, at the Horace Mann seminar. The question will be "Resolved: That the Federal Government should adopt a policy of equalization in tax supported schools by means of annual grants." After the debate, open discussion will be held for all attending.

Dancers Discuss Recital

Members of Dance Club met Tuesday evening at the women's gymnasium to discuss subjects for the theme of their spring recital which will be given in April. ### Alpha Phis Are Making All-College Directory

Members of the Alpha Phi Omega fraternity, are compiling data to make a College directory, including the names of all students, faculty members, and office help in the College. In addition to names, the directory will have Maryville addresses and telephone numbers, classification, and home addresses.

Selling the directory for approximately ten cents, according to the cost of materials, the fraternity is putting the directory out with no profit for themselves but only as a service to the College. The fraternity expects to have the directory completed some time this week. It will be on sale in the lower hall.

Hayden Elroy is directing the project and is assisted by all the other members of the fraternity. Mr. Myron P. Rose, senior adviser of the fraternity, is instrumental in making the project a success. Alpha Phis, it will be remembered, placed the sign of welcome at the entrance of the campus last spring. The fraternity is a national service fraternity.

Campus Club Will Hold Square Dance

Special Three Piece Band Will Be Main Feature; All Are Invited.

"All jump up and never come down. Swing your honey around and around. Till the hollow of your foot makes a hole in the ground."

And promenade, Oh, promenade! "The more, the merrier" is the slogan heard around the campus concerning the all school square dance which is being held tomorrow night in the women's gymnasium, Room 114, from 7:30 until 10 o'clock. Members of the College Dance Club, who are sponsoring the program, extend invitations to all students and faculty members to attend.

Old fashioned square dances will be called by Miss Winole Ann Carruth, chairman of the women's physical education department and sponsor of Dance Club, and Miss Jessie B. Jutten, instructor in the women's physical education department.

Jane Phipps, chairman of the music committee, reports that plans include having a square dance band, composed of a fiddle, a piano and a guitar. Katie Krause is in charge of obtaining a loud speaker for the evening's program, in order that the calling of the dances may be heard clearly.

Joanne Wright and Martha Clymens are responsible for refreshments, which will be sold at the intermission period. Chaperons for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. John N. Pederson of the Horace Mann laboratory school, Miss Jessie B. Jutten and Miss Bonnie Magill of the College physical education department, and Mr. Paxton P. Price, College librarian.

Prexy's Vault Has Revealed Its Secret

After Ten Years' Sleep, Old Hickory Stick Is Aroused to Duty.

The original hickory stick, long used as a symbol of football supremacy between the Kirksville and Maryville colleges, has been found Saturday, January 22, by President J. W. Jones, Mr. R. P. Foster, registrar, and Mr. H. V. Neece, business manager, were removing some records from the vault in President Jones's office, they found a cardboard mailing tube and inside was the original hickory stick.

"This stick bears the inscription, 'This stick was grown on a farm in the Maryville district on which Eugene Fair, president of Kirksville, was born.' Following the inscription is a record of games played between the rival colleges. The last game recorded was in 1938, when the Maryville team defeated Kirksville by a 26-7 score.

The tradition of the hickory stick began many years ago when the stick was adopted as a football trophy between the colleges. Maryville did not get a firm hold on the stick until 1938, but kept it from that year to 1946, when the Bearcats were defeated by Kirksville.

When the original hickory stick could not be located, Kirksville proposed that Maryville make a new one. Members of the "M" Club then made a new hickory stick which the Bearcats won in 1947 and again in 1948.

The original hickory stick will be brought up to date and will then replace the new hickory stick, according to President Jones.

THE COLLEGE OATH

"We will never bring disgrace to this, our College, by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the College. We will reverse and obey the College laws and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in others. We will transmit this College to those who come after us, greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us.

LA MERI KNOWS!

On Monday, February 7, La Meri will present a program of ethnologic dances in the College auditorium. How many students actually know what this statement means? One word in the sentence immediately opens the channels of one's imagination, but does not leave a finality of understanding. That word, of course, is ethnologic.

Literally, ethnology is a science that treats with the division of mankind into races, their origin, relations, and the peculiarities which characterize them. In presenting a dance which does all this the artist must make a close study of the people she is representing. Each dance must be a complete story which delves deeply into the history of a nation.

The connotation which is usually derived from a dance which tells a story is that it is a folk dance, which is a much more familiar term in the English language than ethnologic, but there is a very decided difference between the two.

A folk dance originates among and characterizes the common people of a country and is transmitted from generation to generation like the folk song, but is not a study of the country itself as is the ethnologic dance. Folk dances have always been popular because of the fact that they typify the common people, but those who see the program presented by La Meri will see a sensual study and history of dances which go back to the beginning of time.

THE THIRTEENTH YEAR

In February, 1937, a new lecture series was presented here at the College in an attempt to stimulate broader intellectual interests among the students. It is with this thought in mind that the College presents its thirteenth annual February lecture series. In an attempt to present a wide range in subject matter four lecturers have been chosen from four different fields of learning. Three of the lectures will be given by members of our faculty, and one will be given by a visiting speaker.

The lectures, to be given each Sunday at 4 o'clock in the Horace Mann auditorium, will concern the fields of social science, speech, zoology, and English. Each student should be able to find at least one interest in this diversified group.

The lectures are not limited to students alone, and it is the hope of the College that as many as possible will take advantage of this opportunity to hear four entertaining and highly qualified speakers.

VETERAN CARRIES ON

Truman Geer, student veteran on the campus, has again exhibited his courage that carried him through the war. Truman received permanent injuries from his battle experiences that would normally discourage most of us,—but not Truman.

He decided to attend college and work towards a major in journalism. But as "all good things have their hard spots," Truman has had his. Recently he had a setback and had to be sent to Wadsworth General Hospital, Leavenworth, Kansas, for further treatment.

AWAKE! AWAKE!

Worthy organizations that are slowly dying must be awakened, be constructive, install good means to a good end and be open and above board.

With these policies they need not be sitting on the back seat. Any group that might be in the corner is a potential benign influencing factor.

Under the new system the students will be graded on usable words typed, emphasis being placed on erasing errors and proofreading under timed conditions.

New techniques in the handling of carbon paper have also been demonstrated to the class.

It Is Customary!

On entering a restaurant, the woman precedes her escort. The man then precedes her and finds an empty table. The only prescribed seating is that the woman should be seated so as to have the better view. If two couples enter a booth, the one woman enters first and sits with her escort. The other couple follow. In a large party, the women are seated to the right of their escorts.

The woman removes her wraps after she is seated and slips them over the back of the chair. Men assist with the wraps particularly when they are preparing to leave. Gloves and purse remain in the woman's lap or on a vacant chair, not on the table.

Ordering of the food is done by the escort after first consulting his guest. The escort should aid his friend in the selection of her menu by suggesting certain dishes. (This is of particular advantage to college men—it affords an opportunity for the woman to stay within her escort's financial means.)

Men always rise when a woman leaves or returns to the table, also if a woman approaches the table to talk with him or his guests. The escort always aids his guest in putting on her coat, and she precedes him to the door.

Most rules on public dining advise leaving a ten cent tip for waiter service. However, it is questionable whether this should be required of college men who are generally of lower financial means.

College Again Presents Annual Lecture Series

Geology Congress at London. Later he joined a group of scientists from all parts of the world who traveled through England and Scotland, and across to Scandinavian countries including Sweden, Norway, and Denmark, visiting many museums and universities.

Dr. Colbert is author of "The Dinosaur Book," which is now being translated into French and will be published soon by a Paris firm. The College has a copy of the book.

Dr. Colbert studied at the College two years but completed work toward his B. S. degree at the University of Nebraska. He received his M. A. and Ph. D. degrees from Columbia University, New York.

At the close of his collegiate work he was given a position in the Museum of Natural History as assistant to Dr. Henry Fairfield Osborn, noted president of the museum. For some time, he did research work in the British museum for Dr. Osborn. Dr. Colbert received the first Newberry award. He has also received the gold medal for scientific investigation.

The Stroller

Some of you could put your finger on me, and probably some of you would like to lay a club on me!

Have you heard of people taking baths with ice cubes? Uncle Bobby does it!

Entertainment, yeah! Just sit in the bookstore with Cushman during the noon hour. He'll embarrass you and even tell girls to slap your face. That's a friend!

Now they're even gambling for first place on the divan at Residence Hall on Sunday afternoons—to read the funnies, of course. Norman thinks it takes two people to read the papers.

Acrobats, the Barkatzes are loaded with them. It seems as if all the girls are stronger than the boys. Coach Carruth sends in Max M., for Jim M. This club really has a powerful feminine section.

Mr. Smay, if you are still looking for horn blowers, see Kenny Parsons. He even plays on bars of rest during the cheering. Yes, Mac and Bob, "You all" is still used in the South, somewhat, you all!

We hear that the chairs in humanities class have been shifted. Don't be late, boys; it doesn't pay now.

Cars, why I guess everyone in school owns one, especially when he can get out of classes. I saw six chaps riding in one car, after the announcement had been passed out. Of course the Stroller had to ski home in the dark that evening.

Flowers and trees in the library! By the way, were any of those palms, or were they all just potted plants!

We've heard that some of the men at the Tower Dance got to vote a different way since their wives weren't with them. That Phillis A. P.!

Gus, want to make some pecunia (the short for money)? Raise some cats and sell them to the biology department.

Local "hub-caps" (short for hep-cats) looking for an easy 2.5 hour course. Take play production (161). All you have to do is—first, mechanical drawing, painting, electricity, building (which includes hammer, nails, wood, and dull saw), acting, etc., and intelligence (wait a minute while I look this last word up); in other words you have to have some smart about you. I say, Governor, "That's gone."

It's really awful when the "Old Man" has to stay up at nights and wait for the "bunkies" to come in, so he can put them to bed. Nobody ever asks me to go out. Crying in my milk.

I didn't even get invited to the sock dance! And I need a new pair of socks so badly; in fact I could use both pairs.

Hot news just off the press! Wayne "Stocking Feet" R. had the largest feet, size unknown, but 5½ boards length. That's too much!

Indians, yes, the black foot tribe just arrived. To the bath tub, men!

The pictures are lent for periods ranging up to two college terms and may be exchanged for other pictures at any time. There is no charge for the service, which was begun as a means of acquainting students with the best in American art.—The New York Times.

Tri-Sigs, Doll House, No Shoes, Yet a Dance!

Tri-Sig Doll House was the theme of the annual Sigma Sigma Sigma sock dance held in Room 114 on the evening of January 21.

Representatives Elect Mr. E. Brown Chairman

Mr. Everett W. Brown, director of field service for the College, has been elected chairman of a group organized to further the recruitment of school teachers among high school seniors throughout the state.

The election was held at a meeting of the representatives of the state teacher training institutions at Jefferson City, January 17.

Mr. Brown states that special emphasis will be placed on the training of adequate numbers of elementary teachers in view of the fact that enrollment will be increased in that division during the next few years.

During the meeting a committee was selected to plan descriptive literature emphasizing the advantages of the teaching profession to high school seniors.

Additional plans were made for this project at a meeting of the group in Jefferson City, Monday, January 31.

Mr. Long Collects Rare Rocks, Fossils as Hobby

Mr. Meryl Long, instructor in physical science, has spent much of his spare time during the past 12 years at his hobby, collecting fossils, rare rocks and crystals. He now has a collection which has cost him many hours of hard digging in many states.

Franklin county, Kansas, near the city of Ottawa, has been the scene of most of his work. It was there that he found one of his prizes, a rare and valuable fossil fish. It is a skeleton of a prehistoric fish about 14 inches long, found after an all day search in the chalk beds where no small fish had been found before. All others found there had measured more than 20 feet in length.

Another prize is a petrified chambered nautilus. Another is a stone that can actually bend; it is a piece of flexible sandstone that he found in North Carolina. Another rock is one that shows ripple marks and worm tracks of thousands of years ago. This specimen shows that there were worms on a beach that is now a part of Kansas.

Much patience and care must be taken to remove the different fossils from the rocks because they easily fall apart.

Mr. Long has some shark's teeth, fossil sponges, fossil ferns and many other items in his collection.

Faculty Members Attend Hickory Stick Meeting

Mr. James Rybak Heads Recent Panel Discussion

Each teacher must judge her own situation in deciding the informality in her classroom, emphasized members of the panel discussion at the weekly student teacher seminar program, January 20. "Informality in the Classroom" was the general topic.

Mr. James Rybak was chairman of the panel discussion. Other members were Miss Harriet Williams, Mrs. Lucille Staubus, and Mr. Ellery Gibson, all teachers at Horace Mann.

Development from the extremely formal book-centered school to the child-centered or the so-called progressive school is a phase in the growth of informal teaching, stressed Mrs. Staubus. Today the goal is the adoption of a middle-of-the-road attitude in a life-centered school stressing democratic procedure.

Knowing her own students, creating conditions which will help the teacher gain their trust, and judging the effect of her own personality are all important factors in deciding the informality of the classroom, believe members of the panel, who cited some of their own experiences in trying to develop an attitude of classroom informality.

Sigma Tau Actives Have Smoker for New Pledges

Maryville's Dream Kitchen was the scene of fun and new acquaintances at the recent Sig Tau smoker for prospective pledges. The night was spent playing cards, with the actives milling around talking and entertaining the guests.

Intermediates Discuss Emotional Development

"Emotional Development of Intermediate Children" was the subject discussed by a panel at the January 25 meeting of the Intermediate Club.

Especially did the discussion bring out the school's responsibility to meet the emotional needs of these children. There was an informal discussion among all of the club members following the panel.

Methods which the school might employ in the meeting of these emotional needs were discussed. Naomi Smith was chairman of the panel and the other panel members were Harry Elder, Marceline Doran, and Lucille Lawrence.

At the World Student Service Fund benefit party, the Intermediate Club plans to sponsor a baby photo contest. Photographs of faculty members and students will be displayed and students will be able to purchase a vote for their favorite "pin-up" boy or girl. Anyone who would like to enter a photo in the contest please contact Naomi Smith, chairman of the committee, Bette McKown or Jo Ann Garner.

Long Distance Calling!

One morning, not long ago, a telephone call came through from Athens, Greece, for Nicos Marinou, a senior. His family in Athens "just wanted to talk" to him. Nicos has not seen his parents and fourteen-year-old brother for two years, and the telephone conversation was the first time he had talked with them. Both his mother and father spoke clearly, but his brother was moved to sobs and could not say much.

Interior decorating is being studied by the 8 o'clock class in fine arts under the instruction of Miss Olive S. DeLuce.

The students are making colored drawings of such rooms as the living rooms at their home, rooms at the dormitory, reception rooms at the Quads and rooms in private homes.

Mary Frances Robinett is using a rose color scheme with her arrangement and Charlene Welsh is using blue. Jim Hill has made an especially good drawing of the reception room at one of the Quads, showing the chandeliers, curtains, and paintings on the wall. Jewel Rice has also made a drawing of a reception room at one of the Quads. Bertha Esurra is making drawings of her room at the dormitory, and Artie White is making drawings of the interior of the living room in her home.

Miss Neprud Discusses Book Display Essentials

Libraries and different types of books were discussed by Miss Beulah Neprud, the librarian at Horace Mann, who spoke to the Intermediate Club, January 11.

Miss Neprud discussed the Dewey Decimal System of book classification and arranged a book display. The display especially illustrated the kinds of books that can be used effectively in teaching.

She commented on the fact that books have greatly improved since most of the teachers attending school. They are more interesting, have more illustrations, and are more attractively bound. Such books written in story form make history and other subjects much easier, and more interesting.

Dr. Grube Goes to Princeton

Dr. Frank Grube, head of the English department, drove to Princeton to give examinations to his extension students, January 22.

Maryville Bearcats Play Oklahoma Aggies in St. Joseph Auditorium

Home Team Plans Possible Upset

Bob Harris Will Show His Heavily Favored Arm During Court Play.

It's Teacher vs. Pupil

Capacity Crowd Will See Henry Iba's Men Play Defensive Ball Next Tuesday.

Henry Iba will arrive in St. Joseph on the evening of February 8 with a group of basketball players that are ranked third in the nation. Contesting this position will be Ryland Milner's Maryville Bearcats.

An important element to consider in the clash of these two clubs is the fact that Ryland Milner, head coach of the Bearcats, reached his success under the leadership and direction of his opponent for the evening, Henry Iba, coach of the Aggies. Iba was coaching the Bearcats at the time Milner was doing his undergraduate work and starting in athletics on this campus.

The Aggies, conquerors of the famed St. Louis Billikins, will be set for any possible upsets that the Bearcats may be entertaining. Among the notables that receive their education at A. & M. is Bob Harris. Bob is the main cog in the Oklahoma ball club and Coach Iba has fashioned a sterling team around the superlative post man. Harris played Ed McCauley to a standstill in Stillwater several weeks ago but fouled out in the fourth period leaving Ed to run wild.

Coach Ryland Milner's team is working hard and diligently for this encounter and plans to give the Aggies a real run for their money.

On deck, and ready, is Young Al Henningsen and "Pete" Ranger, scoring aces in the Bearcat brigade. Al is a center worthy of all the recognition bestowed on him. The towering pivot is regaining all of the finesse and splendor displayed before a sprained ankle made him helpless. "Pete" Younger, a flashy cager who is potent from any position on the floor, will also be ready. Younger, as of late, has led the Bearcats' victory march.

The St. Joseph auditorium is expected to be filled to capacity when the two teams square off. The Aggies are strong, but so are the Bearcats. Bigger upsets have happened, so who knows!

Thirty-three Football Players Earn Letters

Coach Ryland Milner recommended 33 football players for letters they earned during the 1948 season.

Four former lettermen recommended were MIAA all-stars: Co-Captain Floyd Klang, tackle of Essex, Iowa; Co-Captain William Gamble, center of Plattsmouth; Norman James, halfback of Albany; Marvin Weed, fullback of Orient, Iowa. Others were Donald Hartness, Maryville; Pat Zuchowski, St. Joseph; Robert Osburn, Savannah; Marion Freeman, Tarkio; Alvin Wormsley, Excelsior Springs; Don Hoffman, Waukegan, Ill.; Raymond Younger, Maryville; Ronald Van Ryswyk, Pleasantville, Iowa; Paul Butherus, Maryville; and Larry Zirbel, Maryville.

First year lettermen were Gaylord Meyers, Atlantic, Ia.; Frank Boyer, Princeton; John Hellerich, St. Joseph; Allan Henningsen, Atlantic, Ia.; Wilbur Peggler, Princeton; Gies Hengeler, Maryville; Gerald Murphy, St. Joseph; Max Hochbauer, St. Joseph; Warren Gresham, Parkville; Walter Stanton, College Springs, Ia.; Joseph Gardner, Kansas City; Glenn Sherry, St. Joseph; William Coulter, Maryville; Wayne Kinman, Clarinda, Ia.; Burton Riekey, Corns, Ia.; John Daly, St. Joseph; Edward Lemmon, Savannah; Bill Sherman, St. Joseph; and Gerald Deitz, Waukegan, Ill.

The aforementioned lettermen received their awards between the halves of the Springfield-Maryville basketball game. The team tied Springfield for the conference championship and were awarded gold footballs, with a green "M" and their names appearing on them. On behalf of the "M" Club the coaches, Ryland Milner and H. D. Peterson, were awarded trophies for their efforts.

Mr. Herbert Dieterich made the presentations.

Miss Dykes Attends Clinic
Miss Mattie Dykes, English instructor, spent the week end of January 29 in Kansas City attending a news writing clinic. The meeting was conducted by Miss Frances Grinstead, associate professor of Journalism of the University of Kansas. This clinic is sponsored by the Missouri Press Women's Club for its own members. Miss Dykes is vice president of the Missouri Press Women's Club.

Sport Scene

By JACK MILLIGAN

Easy Ed McCauley and his rousing bunch of cagers from St. Louis University are tops in the country this year, according to the basketball poll taken a week ago. St. Louis has cruised along with one setback—Oklahoma A. & M.—in an overtime 29-27. Kentucky and the Aggies round out the big three.

The heavyweight boxing situation is still in a turmoil. Joe Louis, official champion, has found nary a pugilist to challenge his coveted crown. The Brown Bomber has declared that if a suitable and worthy contender were to show up he would defend his crown in June.

Willie Pep is training hard for his return bout with Owen Saddler, flyweight champion of the world. Saddler won international fame by blasting Willie and relieving him of his throne as champion. Willie has a defense that he believes will render Saddler helpless in their return engagement.

Bantam Ben Hogan, king of the golfers, is winning tournaments in rapid succession of late, and the Hershey, Pennsylvania, hot shot reached the pinnacle of fame through sheer determination. Ben is hailed by many as the greatest of champions. A sporting immortality!

Sporting Oddity

Harry Greb, the grand little fighter of olden days, was considered the best in his division for many years. The flashy student of fist-cuffs won international fame by demolishing any and all defenses that were thrown at him. Harry had to make short work of his opposition because his vision was good in only one eye. He was blind in the other.

Maryville Bearcats Win Over Rockhurst

Winning Streak Continues; Cagers Will Meet Cats Here Final Round.

Height, speed and determination to keep a winning streak going, helped greatly in the Maryville-Rockhurst game Monday evening, January 24. The Bearcats powered their way through, over, and around a game, but outlasted Rockhurst team by the score of 57-33.

The game was more or less a repetition of the first game played between the two schools on the same floor in the Rockhurst invitational tournament several weeks ago. The Bearcats took the floor with the idea of smashing the adversaries and they did just that. From the opening whistle till the final gun there was no doubt as to the outcome of the game.

Maryville struck early, and with the aid of some fine scoring by Al Henningsen and Pete Younger, pushed the score to 8-2 before the boys from Rockhurst could set themselves against the inevitable that was to follow in the form of sheer power.

Rockhurst fought hard throughout but the small cagers just couldn't match the deception and accuracy forwarded by the Bearcats. When the two teams retired for intermission, the 'Cats were boasting a 21-12 lead over the students of Catholicism.

The second half found the Rockhurst team weak and beaten. The score continued to mount for the Bearcats and the substitutions were quite frequent in the final ten minutes of action.

Al Henningsen found the hoop for 16 points and Pete Younger tossed in 14. The same two teams will meet in their third and final game at Maryville on February 11. Maryville holds victories of 65-41 and 57-33 over Rockhurst.

Bears Drop 'Cats; Ruble, High Scorer

Bearcats Fade in Second Half After First Period Showing.

Springfield State's smooth ball handling team got the accolade as the top team in the MIAA this season. They ran away from Maryville's Bearcats 57 to 41 here Saturday night in a conference game that saw Preston Ward and Gene Ruble, two of the finest shots to play on the local court in many a moon.

The Bears will be challenged tonight on their home court by the Kirksville Bulldogs, defending champions, but this corner feels that the Kirksville dynasty will come to an end, based on the showing of Southwest State here Saturday.

Couldn't Get the Rebounds
Maryville gave the Bears a good go for about fifteen minutes but the Bearcats couldn't get the rebounds and tip-offs, an asset so necessary to success in basketball.

Ward and Ruble no doubt will push all opposition aside for all-star honors in the MIAA. Their uncanny basketball shooting, ability to shake off guards and shoot with a guard's hand in their face make them standouts in the league.

Their two centers, Lindsay and Hedgepeth, always were around the bucket to get the rebounds. This, with precision passing, made the Bears a tough team with which to cope.

Henningsen Maryville Standout

For 12½ minutes Maryville kept pace with the Bears, mainly on goals by Al Henningsen. Big Al was able to out-manuever his guards for push shots and also drive hard under the basket. But it was a telling pace and with four minutes gone in the second half he was jerked when the fourth foul was called.

Ward and Ruble scored the first five points for Springfield. Henningsen meanwhile was compiling the same number of points. Ceglinski hit a long shot for Maryville to put the Bears ahead, 7-5. The teams traded shots, with Ward and Ruble scoring for Springfield and Henningsen pushing Maryville from 7 to 13.

Meanwhile Lindsay got a two pointer and Ruble put the Bears ahead 14 to 13. Ceglinski tied the score with a free throw. Ruble added two free throws to put Springfield ahead 16 to 15 and from then on the visitors stayed in the lead.

Close Gap, 18 to 20

Pete Younger, Maryville forward who usually is one of the leading scorers, got a free throw for his first point. Ruble broke loose for a lay-away. Hedgepeth came in at center for Lindsay who had three fouls. It made no difference. He seemed taller than Lindsay. Henningsen added three more points for Maryville to narrow the gap, 18 to 20, the closest the Bearcats could hang onto the speedy Bears.

Hedgepeth and Ruble sent the score to 26 to 19 as the half ended. Paul Butherus went in for White Meyer at guard for Maryville as the second half started. Ruble went on a scoring spree chalking up five points in a row and Ward added another free throw before Younger hit a charity for Maryville. Hedgepeth, Ward and Ruble ran the Springfield score to 39 before Jon Wohlford got his only field goal for Maryville at the 6½ minute point. Henningsen went back in the game. At 10½ minutes Springfield held a 46 to 26 lead.

Ramsey and Carmichael, two Hopkins boys, who went in the Bearcat lineup, hit fielders to cut the margin. With the score 50 to 30 Henningsen fouled out, with only four minutes left. Ryland Milner was changing the line-up, using his entire squad of 15. Tanner came in at center. Tanner, Milligan, Jones, Butherus and Yurchak broke in the scoring column for Maryville to add eleven points as the Bears were getting seven on buckets by Lindsay, Rayon, Ward and Forsythe.

Ruble was the game's top scorer with 24, followed by Ward with 19. Henningsen was Maryville's leader with 16.

Warrensburg Mules Beat College Team

Artie Elwell Makes Two Free Throws to Win During Overtime.

Warrensburg Mules of Central Teachers College defeated the College Bearcats in a thrilling overtime game on the College court, 33-31, Tuesday, January 18.

Artie Elwell, the Mules' speedy floor man, sank two free throws as time was running out to overcome a 25-27 lead of the Bearcats. Those accurate tosses sent the first MIAA game of the season into an overtime.

In the extra five minutes of play the Mules scored six points on field goals by Key, Elwell and Laney to give them victory over the Bearcats.

Maryville defeated Warrensburg in the Rockhurst tournament earlier in the season. Al Henningsen, who has been hitting the basket successfully was too well guarded by Harold Salmon of Warrensburg. Pete Younger was the outstanding player for Maryville, getting fifteen points.

The lead changed hands throughout the game, with the Mules ahead 4 to 1 for an early lead. Then the Bearcats went ahead 5 to 4. Salmon and Elwell put Warrensburg ahead on free throws and the Mules stayed there to the half, leading 12 to 11.

Whitney Meyers, Maryville guard, tied the score 13 all in the second

Random Shots . . .

Arch Beach, who works as a part-time coach at Skidmore, has been having a successful season on the hardwood courts. His team has achieved victories over Hopkins and Clearmont, just to mention a few of the team's feats.

Coach Ryland Milner was quite confident of victory at the Rockhurst game played at Kansas City a week ago Monday. The little secret was that Coach was listed as one of the officials and one of the officials was listed as the Coach.

Paul "Big Humphrey" Butherus proved his worth in the final minutes in the Cape Girardeau game. Paul hit three free throws and a bucket at the very last minute. Don "Little Humph" Scott really tied the game with his bucket from the side while the Bearcats were putting the "stall act" to the Indians.

In the Rockhurst game, the Bearcats held the Hawks to a mere two field goals in the first half, a total of nine from the field: the whole game.

Coach "Bud" Millikan, former Maryville high school coach and now coach at Newton, Iowa, has fared quite well this season. At present half and then Younger put Maryville ahead with a field goal. Baskets by Henningsen, Wohlford and Younger ran the score to 18-20 and Younger and Meyers gave Maryville a 23 to 20 advantage when the boys lost the ball and Warrensburg tied the game.

Salmon was the high scorer for the winners. His shooting was accurate and his deceptiveness made guarding difficult.

Game time was an hour later than usual because of the weather, and the Mules traveled by train to get here.

Intra-Mural Basketball Teams Play Second Game

Great interest has been shown in intra-mural basketball this year. Each league has more than one or two top contenders for the league championship. Every team is approaching the end of the second and final round of play. Each team is also seriously contemplating entering that all-important intra-mural basketball tournament. It promises to be a stellar event of the year.

As of now, the top contending teams in the Western League are Sparkies, Jelly Beans, and Shmoos. In the Central League, the Jowegians, Vomituritions, and Ramblers are emerging as the top teams. In the Eastern League, the House of Day, Phi Sigs, Shells, Trojans, and Independents are all that will bear watching.

The highest individual scores of the respective leagues are as follows: Western League, Pope, 79 points; Central League, Randall Malone, 77 points; Eastern League, Don Marsh and Mr. Arlin "Fireball" Feyerherm, 82 points each.

For the latest data on intra-mural basketball, attend the games and consult the bulletin board located on the main floor of the Administration Building.

W. A. A. Basketball Tourney Is Under Way

Every Monday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock in Room 113 the Women's Athletic Association basketball tournament will be played until the end of the winter quarter.

One of the first games was won by the Stumblers, who are captained by Vee Oyerly. Their score against Bev Osburn's team, Ossie's Hot Shots, was 30-18.

In the second game, also played January 17, the Cold Shots, led by Joyce Wehrli, beat Mary Booth's Jay Birds 20-14 in a close game.

Monday, January 24, the Stumblers again won the first game of the evening, beating the Jay Birds 23-10.

Joyce Wehrli's Cold Shots were hot again and, with a score of 34-14, beat Ossie's Hot Shots, who seemed to be having an off night.

Officials were Vee Oyerly, Irma Jensen and Mary Booth, with Miss Bonnie Magill, sponsor, as scorekeeper.

Ice Skating Party Will Be Chills and Thrills

Twenty-five members of the Co-operative Independent Club met Wednesday evening, January 19, at seven o'clock, in Room 207, to discuss plans for future entertainment.

Provided the ice is substantial on the College pond, the Club will meet tonight and enjoy the evening ice skating. The Independents also include in their future plans a College assembly program.

Following the business meeting, entertainment was turned over to Lucille Cockayne. Several games were played and the remainder of the evening was spent square dancing.

Bearcats Win MIAA Tilt Over Indians

Green and White Cagers Employ Stall to Take Conference Game.

The Green and White cagers won their first M. I. A. A. hardwood game of the infant conference race. The final score was 51-46, with the Cape Girardeau Indians the victors.

It was a nip and tuck affair throughout the whole game. The half ended in a tie, 22 all. The score was tied five times with the Bearcats leading the majority of the time.

Big Al Henningsen and "Pete" Younger proved the difference in the ball game, both banging down 18 points. The two seniors of the squad, Paul Butherus and Don Scott, came through in the clutch. Butherus threw in three vital free throws and Scott hit the bucket that really swung the game at the end.

Had the Bearcats been able to put on the stall like this in the Warrensburg game, they would have been on the right side of the ledger instead of the one and two record.

"Pete" Younger started the scoring on a pass from Henningsen when he caught the defense napping. "Pete" scored on a lay-up.

Maryville built up a lead of 16- and 18-12 at time in the first half with Meyers pitching in to do the heavy scoring. Upton and Merrill took care of this and tied up at 22 all at the half. Upton led the Indians scoring with 15 points on some beauties from way out.

At the start of the second half, Cape built up a three point lead. The Bearcats came back to take the lead of 29-27 on baskets by Wohlford, Younger and Henningsen. Again Cape scored ahead and the Cats tied the score at 38 all. Henningsen led the lead the rest of the game. Butherus and Scott "Big and Little Humph," respectively, put on their show at this time to provide the margin of victory.

Merrick, Cape's leading scorer of the season, was held to four points; he left the game on fouls mid-way in the second half.

Coach Milner used his small number of players for the season in one game—using only eight.
